To whom it may concern

Frank Oliver BARTON made application to the Herefordshire Court in the summer of 1992 for the grant of a restaurant licence in respect of the Wye Invader sited at Greyfriars Bridge, Hereford.

Notice was served on the West Mercia Police and an inspection was carried out of the vessel on Wednesday 26th August 1992. The police view at that time was not to oppose the application as the proposal met the criteria required for that type of licence.

The application was later withdrawn by Mr Barton on 2nd March 1993.

I have caused a check of licensing records held at Herefordshire Magistrates Court and the Police Station, but none of the original papers in relation to the application have been retained.

This information is supplied from my recollection of events together with that of PC Moore who has a record of the date of inspection.

Yours faithfully
